

Richland Parish Adjudicated Property

NOTE: This list is not exact. Tax debtors can redeem their properties at any time and that action will serve to remove the property from the adjudicated list. Additionally, if a property is sold through the adjudication sales program, it may not be removed from this list immediately. Properties with a star are believed to be city adjudications. E & P Consulting does not sell adjudicated property for any city in Richland Parish, but could assist in these sales if a city were interested in getting these properties back into commerce.

Properties are listed under name of the tax debtor with the tax assessor's the parcel number and a legal description. For more information, you must conduct additional information on the property through the Richland Parish tax assessor's website: Richland Parish, Louisiana Real Property Search - actDataScout
